

Protecting the Right to Water

2 March 2006 - 19:00-20:30

Small meeting house, Friends' House
173 Euston Road, London

There is a water crisis.

1.1 billion people lack access to an adequate supply of water.

Over 2 million people, mostly children, die annually from water-related diseases.

Privatisation of public water delivery systems and exploitation of resources by large-scale agriculture, industry and bottling companies are criticised for exacerbating the situation. Agricultural and industrial pollution can endanger whole communities.

Campaigners around the world are calling for water to be recognised as a human right and a public good and for there to be a Convention protecting the right to water.

Mark Thomas will present a call for action to be taken by the World Water Forum, meeting in Mexico, 16-22 March, and by the United Nations.

Franklin Fredrick: From the Brazilian campaign against a Nestlé bottling plant.

Benedict Southworth: Director, World Development Movement

John Hilary: Director of Campaigns and Policy, War on Want

Mike Brady: Campaigns and Networking Coordinator, Baby Milk Action and Nestlé boycott campaign

Protecting the Right to Water

2 March 2006 - 19:00-20:30

Small meeting house, Friends' House
173 Euston Road, London

There is a water crisis.

1.1 billion people lack access to an adequate supply of water.

Over 2 million people, mostly children, die annually from water-related diseases.

Privatisation of public water delivery systems and exploitation of resources by large-scale agriculture, industry and bottling companies are criticised for exacerbating the situation. Agricultural and industrial pollution can endanger whole communities.

Campaigners around the world are calling for water to be recognised as a human right and a public good and for there to be a Convention protecting the right to water.

Mark Thomas will present a call for action to be taken by the World Water Forum, meeting in Mexico, 16-22 March, and by the United Nations.

Franklin Fredrick: From the Brazilian campaign against a Nestlé bottling plant.

Benedict Southworth: Director, World Development Movement

John Hilary: Director of Campaigns and Policy, War on Want

Mike Brady: Campaigns and Networking Coordinator, Baby Milk Action and Nestlé boycott campaign

ActionAid ● Baby Milk Action ● Christian Aid ● War on Want ● World Development Movement

www.babymilkaction.org

Photo: Mike Brady. Malawi

ActionAid ● Baby Milk Action ● Christian Aid ● War on Want ● World Development Movement

www.babymilkaction.org

Photo: Mike Brady. Malawi