Book list

- Guy Arnold The Third World Handbook Cassell 1994 £20
  Useful resource with clear explanations of development issues from the viewpoint of the South. Highly recommended overview of the structures which create poverty and the changes which can be made to create a fairer world.

  Looks at how contemporary forms of slavery – sex workers, bonded labourers – fit into the global economy.

- Sharon Beder Global Spin: the corporate assault on environmentalism Green Books 1997 £10.95
  Essential background on the sophisticated and effective PR techniques used by the corporate lobby to discredit the environmental movement.

  Useful reference book of country profiles written by authors from the South.

  Explores a new concept of wealth and wealth creation, especially what governments and people can do to build a sustainable society – to create prosperity and a fairer world in a healthy environment.

- John Elkington Cannibals With Forks Capstone 1997 £12.99
  Sustainable development guru, whose corporate clients include Shell, explores how businesses can achieve the ‘triple bottom line’ of economic prosperity, environmental protection and social equity. A blueprint for optimists.

- Colin Hines & Tim Lang The New Protectionism Earthscan Publications 1993 £10.95
  Suggests free trade should be stopped, and local-regional trade should be promoted to reduce environmental damage.

  Thought provoking book, written in a journalistic style which explores how branding has created global corporate empires which permeate popular culture. Shows how reaction to the abuse of such corporate power has provoked the world wide anti-globalisation movement.

- David Korten When Corporations Rule the World Earthscan 1995 £14.95
  A thorough examination of how corporations have extended their power and influence to every sphere of public and private life.

  One of the excellent Global Issues in a Changing World series
